

KNOCKED OUT IN FOUR ROUNDS

Wild Bill Hanrahan Easy for Children.
NEW YORKER OUTCLASSED
JAW DOES IT.

Chicago, Feb. 2.—Wild Bill Hanrahan's assault on the heavy-weight champion was so quickly dispelled tonight by Frank Childs, the colored heavy-weight, who knocked out the New York fighter after one minute of fighting in the fourth round of a six-round contest at the American club. Hanrahan was outclassed from the start, although at the beginning of the first round he landed a wild swing on Childs' head. Childs slipped, but was hit in a second and sent hurtling to the floor with a stiff left to the jaw. Hanrahan remained down for the limit, but he had made the better of it in the exchanges that followed.

The second round was full of wild blows, neither side doing better than the other. In the third round Childs began playing for Hanrahan's stomach, and was more successful at that style of fighting. On several occasions he landed on the New Yorker's abdomen without a return. As the round progressed, Hanrahan became

DAVE SULLIVAN AND HIS FIGHTING FACE

He Is Matched to Meet McGovern in Kentucky, Feb. 22.

Dave Sullivan, who will meet Terry McGovern at Louisville on Feb. 22, is not a new name to the boxing public. He is a man who has been in the ring for a long time, and is known for his fighting face.

Wilder than ever in his delivery and wilder than ever in his fighting, Dave Sullivan is a man who has been in the ring for a long time, and is known for his fighting face.

LOOKS LIKE A FAKE

Ugly Rumors From Coast Indicate

Gardner-Root Fight Was Not on the Square.

Ugly rumors from the coast are being circulated about the Gardner-Root fight, which took place last Friday night, claiming that the contest was not on the square.

It is just possible that the San Francisco sports have been dumpped once again, as they have often been before. Concerning the contest, the Examiner has the following to say:

"The San Francisco public has been duped again by the plug uglies. Jack Root last night won an alleged battle with George Gardner at the Mechanics' pavilion. He was given the fight in the seventh round on a foul. He played his fight like a real pugilist in melodrama, going to the floor and screaming around. Then, after the decision, he arose and saluted himself as ably as it could be to a man who had been knocked out."

"All day yesterday the touts and gamblers were busy with the fight. It was on the short end, which means that the fight was a fake. The touts were the favorite in the betting. Still, the men who fought the fight were fighting fairly well. The fight was a fake, and the touts were the favorite in the betting."

"The inside gamblers knew that Lou Houseman was managing Jack Root. Houseman has been in the ring for a long time, and is known for his fighting face. He was a man who has been in the ring for a long time, and is known for his fighting face."

"That Gardner tried to lose on a foul was evident to everybody near the ring. He began to lose in the second round, and was knocked out in the seventh round. He was a man who has been in the ring for a long time, and is known for his fighting face."

"The seventh round, Root, evidently acting on the instructions of his seconds, dropped in on his back and pantomimed pain. Referee Phil Wade promptly awarded the fight to Root, and the fake

COMMENCES TRAINING

Phil Green Yesterday Began Hard Work for His Coming Bout With Rowan.

Phil Green, the Utah champion featherweight, commenced active training yesterday for his coming bout with Silent Rowan, who claims the same title for the state of Montana. Green was seen at his training camp at the beginning of the fight, and was seen to be in good condition.

He says he will not have a hard time to get into condition as he has been taking care of himself ever since his victory over Jimmy Heusser. Silent Rowan has been in training at Anaconda for the past week and expects to come here by the latter end of this week. There has been more interest in this contest than any that has been held in Salt Lake, and it is expected considerable money will change hands. Silent has many admirers in Salt Lake, who are willing to back his judgment that he will defeat the local champion.

WADE ON GREEN.

Montana Man Tells What He Would Do to Local Man.

The fact that Phil Green has gained quite a reputation in Salt Lake by his fight was over. The San Francisco sporting public had been swindled just once more. The people went home saying they never would be swindled again. But now the fake promoters are going to bring out Jack Chopski to fight the winner. If the people patronize that fiasco they will deserve their bunking."

rests for the present. Kennedy's offer, which Fitzsimmons agreed to, was an equal division of the gross receipts and picture privileges between the fighters and the club, each to take one-third.

Jeffries has communicated with Billy Delaney, his manager, who is now in San Francisco looking over the ground. Jeffries' future actions regarding a match with Fitzsimmons will be largely guided by what Delaney may suggest.

IMPERSONATING PETE.

Someone must be impersonating Mexican Pete in the Utah capital. A story was sent out last week that bulky Pete had been taken up by a vagrant and abused for pretending to fight when he knew he could not, and must therefore feel somewhat chagrined over an accusation that he got into a real row.

ANOTHER FIGHTER ARRIVES.

Another fighter by the name of Kid Strig arrived in the city yesterday and is now looking for the scalps of local men. He stated that he was willing to meet any man in the state with the single exception of Jimmy Burns. He named Young Charles, Jim Francis or George Condie among those he would be willing to fight at catch weights. Strig fights at 138 pounds, and is a native of the state of Montana. He is a native of the state of Montana, and is a native of the state of Montana.

BURNS GOES TO OGDEN.

Jimmy Burns left for Ogden last evening to be absent for a couple of days. It was rumored that Jimmy Burns was in the city yesterday, and was seen to be in good condition.
